Why Use Positive Homestay

When arriving from outside of Auckland, it can be overwhelming being in a new city.

- not knowing where you are
- not knowing where to go

With Positive Homestay you don't have to feel disoriented.

Your host can help you find your way through amenities, transport and to appointments.

Positive Homestay is a home away from home where your comfort is in good hands.

Positive Homestay is available for all nationalities.

How to apply for Positive Homestay

Step 1 - Register with Body Positive to be eligible

Step 2 - Apply for a homestay

Step 3 - Body Positive will allocate a suitable host at your request

Step 4 - You will be given an itinerary detailing dates, your hosts contact details, and a location map

At the end of your homestay your comments are valued. Please fill out our feedback form.

Note: Relocation to another host, once issued an original host will not be permitted

Tinana Ora

Tinana Ora is Maori for "Body is Alive"

We are a group of Maori, Polynesian and Bi-Cultural men living with HIV.

With our elected Kaumatua, on the Body Positive Board of Trustees, we are able to assist Body Positive in understanding the dynamics when dealing with Maori, Polynesian and Bi-Cultural men with HIV.

Budgeting Service

Need help with your money? Body Positive has developed a computer software programme that helps you identify concerns and issues with your personal budget and recommend ways to help.
